The year 1905 will long be remembered in the home of E. N. Tackett of Allans, Ky., as a year of blood, which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as strong as ever, permanently cured." Guaranteed for 1000 lunges, coughs and colds, at the Red Cross pharmacy. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A Poultry Food of Genuine Merit.

The manufacturer of any stock food must be attentive to all the details of its preparation, being certain that only first class materials enter into its composition. It is claimed for "Page's Perfected Poultry Food" that there doesn't enter into its composition a single particle of the ordinary meat meal which is the basis for so many poultry foods. The nearest approach to it is what is known as Tallow Scraps or Cracklings, and every grandmother who has lived on the farm and taken care of chickens knows that there is nothing better to make hens lay than Tallow Scraps, and "Page's Perfected Poultry Food" contains a considerable percentage of this ingredient.

Any one sending his address on a postal card to C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., and mentioning this paper, will receive by mail, free, postpaid, a sample package of "Page's Perfected Poultry Food."

DISCOVERED SUICIDE.

Boy Ran 1 1/2 Miles to Get Away From Man With Slashed Throat.

Pittsfield, Mass., Nov. 8.—Living alone in his little cabin on the mountain side in Lanesboro, Clark Hope, 70 years old, tried to commit suicide last Saturday by cutting his throat with a razor. He was discovered yesterday afternoon by Dean Newton of Lanesboro, a boy 15 years old, who was out hunting.

As the boy passed by his cabin, the old man limped to the door with the ghastly gash in his throat. The boy was so scared he ran a mile and a half home and told his mother, who notified Dr. F. Chase Downing.

The doctor hastened to the cabin and found the hermit so weak he could hardly speak, but still conscious. He had not eaten a morsel since last Saturday. "What did you come up here for, any way?" said the hermit to Dr. Downing. "I don't need you."

Dr. Downing ordered Hope's removal to the Pittsfield House of Mercy hospital. It is thought he cannot live.

Born in Canada, Hope has lived the life of a hermit in Berkshire for 30 years. His little cabin of one room was stocked with provisions for the winter. In his youth he lost in love and went to live in the Lanesboro mountains. He has only one sister, Mrs. A. C. Perault of North Adams.

Receiver for Hotel Low.

Montpelier, Nov. 8.—The motion to dissolve the injunction restraining a majority of the stockholders of Hotel Low of Bradford from disposing of the property was argued last evening before Judge J. M. Tyler. This injunction was served October 29 last. Judge Tyler denied the motion and appointed Jerome B. Hale receiver of the property. A minority of the stockholders procured the injunction because a majority wished to sell the property, the purchaser to take the furniture at $2,000, to which they objected as they claimed they had no interest in the personal property.
